

CAFP NATIONAL BURSARY PROGRAM APPLICATION 2017 - 2018

CAFP NATIONAL BURSARY PROGRAM APPLICATION FOR CAFP NATIONAL AND CORPORATE-SPONSORED BURSARIES

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

All information is to be completed on the following form and processed online.

NOTE: Only online applications will be considered. In order to process your online bursary application, you will need to login with your CAFP password.

The following documents must be included in the application submission:

- The completed Applicant Information Form.
- A one (1) page essay describing your career motivation and objectives.
- A current resume.
- Academic Recommendation form, completed by a course professor who knows you well and can comment in a meaningful way on the criteria listed. This can also be a program director, faculty advisor or teaching assistant (at the Masters or PhD level only).
- Your most up-to-date official school transcript, this can be a photocopy or original.
- A letter of reference from a previous or current employer, teacher or non-relative (Different than the faculty member who did your academic recommendation).

The following additional items must be included for eligibility for the Ron Whittet Bursary:

- Two additional letters of reference from individuals who know of your participation in these programs.
- A separate list of your involvement and contribution on behalf of humanity. Include experience and participation in community groups, church groups, volunteer work, Scouting and Guide programs, and/or other charitable involvement.

An email notification must be sent to the National Bursary Committee Chair (ffurmankiewicz@icloud.com) for consideration of Campbell's Bursary by March 8th, 2018. These Bursaries are for students accepted into a Graduated Internship Program starting 2018:

- Provide details of the graduated internship program that you have been accepted to once confirmed.

Submit the completed application and required contents online by Friday March 8th, 2018:
